

Essential Selective Mathematical Reasoning Book 1 – Errata

09/01/2026

Page 17, Test 1, Question 33 – Option C and Option D were different forms of the same time, that answered the question. Option D has been changed. The answer remains as Option C.

p 17

Essential Selective Mathematical Reasoning Book 1

31 If a rock climber is three-fifths below a clifftop in terms of the cliff's total height, how tall is the cliff if the rock climber is 24 metres above the ground?

A 54m
B 36m
C 55m
D 60m
E 65m

32 A clothing shop advertises 'Buy three get one 50% off'.
 For this offer, the average cost per item is the same as:

A A discount of 12.5% per item
B Three for the price of two
C A discount of 30% after buying two items.
D Six for the price of four.
E A discount of 25% per item

33 Andrew started studying at 12.40 am and worked for 42 minutes.
 He then took a break until 2.13 pm.
 He then studied vocabulary for 84 minutes before taking a break until 4.15 pm.
 Afterwards, he completed Maths in 73 minutes.
 How much more time did he spend working than on break?

A 100 minutes
B $1\frac{1}{2}$ hours
C 110 minutes
D $1\frac{3}{4}$ hours
E 2 hours

A 100 minutes
B $1\frac{1}{2}$ hours
C 110 minutes
D $1\frac{3}{4}$ hours
E 2 hours

© Ray Lee and Jimmy Liu © Five Senses Education Pty Ltd 2023 17